

Minister’s Foreword	5
Glossary of Terms and Abbreviations	6
Abbreviations	9
1. Introduction	10
1.1 Background to the Review	10
1.2 Terms of Reference for the Review of adoption legislation	10
1.3 Aims of the consultation paper	10
1.4 Contributing to the Review	11
1.5 Acknowledgments	11
2. Overview of Current Adoption Law and Practice	12
2.1 Background and history of adoption legislation and practice	12
2.2 Provision of adoption services in Queensland	12
2.3 Current adoption practice	13
2.4 Delivery of services	18
3. The Concept of Adoption and General Principles	19
3.1 What is adoption?	19
3.2 Public regulation of adoption	20
3.3 Is there a need for adoption?	20
3.4 Objectives of adoption legislation	22
3.5 Principles guiding adoption practice	23
3.6 Primary operating principle - the best interests of the child are paramount	24
3.7 Guiding principles	25
3.8 Defining the best interests of children requiring adoptive placements	29
3.9 The legal effect of adoption	30
4. Open Adoption Practice	32
4.1 Background	32
4.2 What is open adoption?	33
4.3 Current law and practice	34
4.4 Open adoption practices	35
4.5 Concerns about and benefits of open adoption	36
4.6 Discussion	37
4.7 Future direction	39
5. Adoption of Children from Queensland	41
5.1 Overview of legislative and program developments	41
5.2 The Department’s Responsibilities	42
5.3 Current arrangements	42
5.4 Future arrangements	44
6. Adoption of Indigenous Children	45
6.1 The effects of past laws and practices	45
6.2 Adoption and Indigenous customary laws	45
6.3 Current law and practice	46
6.4 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander child placement principle	47
6.5 Identification of Indigenous children	50
6.6 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander involvement in the adoption process	51
7. Adoption of Children by Step-parents and Relatives	53
7.1 Background	53
7.2 Current Law and Practice	55
7.3 Eligibility and Assessment	56
7.4 Effect of adoption by a step-parent	56
7.5 Alternatives to step-parent adoption	57
7.6 Other jurisdictions	57
7.7 Concerns expressed by some people affected by step-parent adoption	58
7.8 Proposals for the future	59
8. Intercountry Adoption	60
8.1 History of intercountry adoption in Queensland	60

8.2 Current practice	62
8.3 The Hague Convention and bilateral agreements	64
8.4 The role of the Department of Families	66
8.5 Queensland Government responsibilities	66
8.6 Education and support services	67
9. Consent to Adoption	69
9.1 Making sure consent is informed and voluntary	69
9.2 The timing of consent	69
9.3 Counselling and the provision of information	70
9.4 Consent of birth parents who are under 18 years of age or have a decision-making incapacity	71
9.5 Witnessing consents	72
9.6 Revocation of consent	73
9.7 Consent of Birth Fathers	74
9.8 Children's Consent	78
9.9 Dispensing With Consent	81
10. Selecton of Adoptive Parents	85
10.1 Current arrangements	85
10.2 Eligibility	85
10.3 Eligibility criteria	86
10.4 Assessment of suitability	92
10.5 Matching children in Queensland with prospective adoptive parents	94
10.6 Framework for considering the placement of children with prospective adoptive parents in Queensland proposed by overseas authorities	96
10.7 Placement policy and practice issues	97
10. 8 Administrative processes for selection of adoptive parents	99
10.9 Administrative decision-making processes	105
10.10 Administrative review	107
11. The Legal Process for Adoption	110
11.1 Legal responsibility for the child prior to making an adoption order	110
11.2 Which body should make adoption orders?	111
11.4 Who should be able to apply for adoption orders and who should be parties?	115
11.5 Interim orders	116
11.6 Child's participation	117
11.7 Child's name	120
11.8 Birth certificates	121
11.9 Discharge of adoption orders	123
12. Post-adoption Services	125
12.1 Current law and practice	125
12.2 Role of the State	127
12.3 Services in relation to adoption plans	127
12.4 Responses and services related to adoption disruption	128
12.5 Post-adoption services for birth parents	129
12.6 Services relating to the provision of information and contact	129
12.7 Financial support for adoption placements	130
13. Future Service delivery	131
13.1 Delivery of adoption services in Queensland	131
13.2 Adoption services subject to fees	135
13.3 Outcome evidence and data collection	142
APPENDIX 1	144
APPENDIX 2	151
APPENDIX 3	152
APPENDIX 4	153
APPENDIX 5	158
APPENDIX 6	159
BIBLIOGRAPHY	160
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	164